Ferries in Troms use the payment system AutoPASS
Upon boarding, the ferry crew takes a picture of the vehicle's registration number and measures its length. This information is used to determine if the vehicle has an AutoPASS tag, an AutoPASS advance agreement, or is linked to FerryPay.

FerryPay
If you don’t have an AutoPASS agreement, you can use FerryPay. We recommend using FerryPay if you are a tourist travelling by ferry in Norway. FerryPay is an automatic card payment for ferry journeys. With FerryPay, you avoid receiving invoices for each journey and can easily pay the full price before boarding.
